

Joint Youth Loan Terms and Conditions

The joint youth loan is made up of up to $50,000 from WEC and up to $15,000 from Futurpreneur Canada, and is subject to terms and conditions from both contributing partners.

1. WOMEN'S ENTERPRISE CENTRE REPAYMENT TERMS AND FEES

- Up to $50,000 with a five-year term
- Interest is charged at RBC's prime +4%
- Interest-only payments for up to 6 months
- Principal repayments are made in equal monthly instalments together with interest, over the remaining term of the loan
- No penalty for early repayment
- A one-time loan administration fee of 1% before disbursing the loan

2. FUTURPRENEUR CANADA REPAYMENT TERMS AND FEES

- Up to $15,000 with a term over five years
- Interest is charged at CIBC's prime rate +4%.
- Learn more about their terms on the Futurpreneur Canada website

3. INELIGIBLE PROJECTS

If a project falls into one of the categories below, it is not eligible for Women's Enterprise Centre financing under the Joint Youth Loan program, but it may be eligible under another program:

- Projects in the pre-start-up phase for which seed or early-stage capital is required
- Any business in which the owner does not have operational control over important aspects of the business (this may include some franchises)
- Any business for which the majority of gross revenues do not come from direct sales of the business's products or services (i.e. Multi-tiered marketing projects)
- Any projects that support businesses that do not operate on a for-profit basis
- Any investment that can be considered speculative
- Refinancing of existing debt from another lender
- Loans greater than $65,000 ($50,000 from WEC plus $15,000 from Futurpreneur Canada). WEC does offer business loans up to $150,000 with different qualifications, terms and conditions.
- Loans for a project that requires funding above $65,000, but which hasn't secured the additional funding